Prof. Cooper Turns Accuser and Files Informations Against

THE NORMAL SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Bank Officials to Be Arrested on a Charge of Conspiracy.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

Called to-night in the Edinboro State Normal Hall and over 1,000 people assembled.

During the committee's absence Prof. Cooper made statement to the meeting. He stated that the trustees, some of whom are officers in the Edinboro Savings Bank, had conspired to ruin him by causing judgment to be entered up and issued upon him, and that he had stolen $1,800 from the bank.

Resolutions were adopted by a rising vote. The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote. The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

Tonight information was made before the board of trustees by Prof. Cooper, charging Charles O. Scrofford, President of the Board of Trustees, and Henry H. Reeder, President of the bank and financial manager of the school, with conspiracy to defame his character and ruin him in property.

THE TRIAL ONLY BEGUN.

Nearly the Whole Day Getting a Jury in the Delamater Case.

MEADVILLE, Feb. 11.—The second day of the trial of the Delamater case under the auspices of Judge W. C. C. Cloister, opened this morning, Feb. 11, 1920, on the charge of "having received money on deposit, knowing themselves to be insolvent," filed in court under an indictment returned by the grand jury on the charge of the same character, however, for nearly the entire day was consumed in obtaining a jury.

The jury was completed at 5 p. m., after which Thomas Roddy, on behalf of the Commonwealth, opened the case with a 30-minute address, during which he cited particulars of the failure and resignation of the defendants' liabilities, which were given at about $200,000, with assets valued at $100,000, and with a net result of sufficient amount to bring the grand aggregate up to $1,000,000, with assets jointly and separately valued at $200,000.

A Mob of Tramps at Harrisburg.
